Irish Victory

3 scored a PR victory over O2 by ambushing its rival’s sponsorship of the rugby union international between Ireland and England in Dublin. Guerilla tactics included beaming a massive projection of the 3 logo on buildings, using clean graffiti logos all over town and providing 3 merchandise for Irish rugby supporters.

Rachel Channing, Head of PR for 3 Ireland, said, “3 was behind the Irish team all the way whilst O2 hedged their bets with sponsorship of both Ireland and England. 3 made great inroads into winning Irish hearts and minds on the day and also generated some great publicity and word of mouth.”

Taking the Initiative

Hutchison Port Holdings (HPH) has endorsed the Global Initiative to Combat Nuclear Terrorism. Co-chaired by the governments of the United States and Russia, the initiative leverages public-private partnerships to deter the shipment of nuclear materials and weapons through the global transportation supply chain, especially the maritime shipping network.

“The Global Initiative is a perfect example of how public-private partnerships can make the world’s supply chain more safe from the threat of nuclear terrorism,” said John Meredith, Group Managing Director of HPH. “The fact that 13 countries, including Russia, China, the United Kingdom and the United States, are actively working together in this initiative is a testament to its importance.”
