Sale of Mainland JV Nets US$2 billion

Hutchison Whampoa (China) Ltd (HWCL) has sold its remaining 20% interest in the Mainland China joint venture Procter & Gamble-Hutchison Ltd (P&G-H) to The Procter & Gamble Company (P&G) for a cash consideration of US$2 billion (approximately HK$15.6 billion). The deal was completed in June with a gain on sale of HK$13.7 billion realised by HWCL. HWCL and P&G established the initial JV in Mainland China in 1988. In 1997, by mutual agreement HWCL sold approximately 10% of its interest in P&G-H to a P&G subsidiary and agreed with P&G on options for it to acquire HWCL’s remaining 20% between 2007 and 2017. The agreement accelerated the sale, which represented the realisation of value of a non-core asset of Hutchison.

Fuel for Sport

To enter into the spirit of the Olympic Games, Watsons Water is focusing on “Sports” this year. In April it joined Hong Kong City Polytechnic University and Hong Kong Polytechnic University to organise the “Watsons Water Bottle Label Design Competition.”

The competition highlighted in an imaginative way that water is closely associated with sports and fitness and 90 tertiary design students took part. Meanwhile, the A.S. Watson Group is sponsoring the Hong Kong Outstanding Junior Athlete Awards for the second year running.

Strategic Investment

HWL announced on June 9 that the Group has signed an agreement with Hyundai Merchant Marine Co (HMM) to purchase 12% of the shares of HMM at a consideration of approximately HK$606 million (approximately US$77.7 million).

HWL’s business relationship with HMM began in 1993 when the shipping company first called at the Group’s port terminals. In 2001, HWL acquired the Jaseongdae terminal in Busan, South Korea, from HMM and led a consortium with HMM and Hanjin Shipping to operate a terminal in Kwangyang. HWL currently operates the Busan and Kwangyang ports through Hutchison Port Holdings.

Hutchison Whampoa Limited

Hutchison Whampoa Limited (HWL), one of the largest companies listed on the main board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, is the holding company of the Hutchison Whampoa Group of companies. As one of the earliest big “hongs”, or trading companies, in Hong Kong, Hutchison’s history dates back to the 1800s. Today, HWL is a multi-national conglomerate with businesses spanning 42 countries. With over 170,000 employees worldwide, Hutchison operates and invests in five core businesses: ports and related services; telecommunications; property and hotels; retail and manufacturing; and energy and infrastructure.

Its flagship companies include Hutchison Port Holdings, Hutchison Telecom, Hutchison Whampoa Properties, A.S. Watson, and Cheung Kong Infrastructure. In 2003, HWL’s consolidated revenue was HK$145,609 million (US$18,668 million).

Husky Q1 Results

Husky Energy reported net earnings of C$263 million or C$0.60 per share (diluted) in Q1 2004, compared with C$408 million or $1.01 per share (diluted) in the same quarter of 2003. Cash flow from operations was C$583 million or C$1.36 per share (diluted), compared with C$747 million or C$1.76 per share (diluted) in the corresponding period the year before. Sales and operating revenues, net of royalties, were C$2.1 billion in the first quarter of 2004, compared with $2.2 billion in the first quarter of 2003.

The variance in results for net earnings, cash flow and revenues is due to the effects of lower exchange rates between the Canadian and US dollar, and tax related changes. Husky increased overall gas production by 4% compared with the same period in 2003. For full results, see: www.huskyenergy.ca/investors/

When Whitney Houston visited for a one-night-only performance on July 28, the internationally acclaimed recording artist and star of the 1992 hit movie The Bodyguard chose to stay in the sleek new Presidential Suite at the Harbour Plaza Hong Kong.

Besides its astounding panoramic harbour views, the two-storey suite features a beautiful marble master bathroom with sauna, a massive master bedroom, a living room with a Steinway Baby Grand piano, and a study, kitchen, and adjoining guest room.
DoCoMo Takes Stake in HTIL

Hutchison Whampoa Limited (HWL) and NTT DoCoMo in May agreed to exchange DoCoMo’s 20% investment in Hutchison 3G UK Holdings (H3G UK) for a stake in Hutchison Telecommunications International (HTIL), a subsidiary company of HWL. The total consideration of the transaction was £120 million. The consideration will be made to DoCoMo in three instalments in the form of HTIL shares, subject to the listing of HTIL, which has applied for a listing on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, or, at HWL’s discretion, in cash. The final instalment is scheduled for Dec. 2006. Under a separate agreement, the £200 million shareholder loan provided in May 2003 by DoCoMo to H3G UK was transferred at cost to Hutchison 3G Europe Investments a subsidiary of HWL.

3 Extends Handset Range

3 has introduced the latest models in its growing range of 3G video mobile phones. The stylish LG U8110 was launched in Europe and Australia and the LG U8120 in Hong Kong. Both boast an array of features to enable customers to make the most of the unique benefits of the 3 video mobile network. Measuring 95.7mm x 49.5mm x 23.1mm and weighing just 126g, the clamshell handsets are the smallest phones in the 3 range and have been designed for the ultimate in portability and comfort. The launch was the result of a global agreement between LG Electronics and Hutchison Whampoa under which three million handsets will be delivered in 2004 to the 3 group of companies globally.

Fast Cards

3 has joined forces with Lucent Technologies and Novatel Wireless to provide UMTS wireless PC cards to 3 customers in Australia, Denmark, Italy, Sweden and Hong Kong. The April agreement is also available to other 3 markets worldwide. The Merlin U530 PC cards operate on 3’s 3G networks at speeds up to 384kb per second, allowing customers all the benefits of high-speed access to the Internet and corporate intranet while fully mobile. Lucent and Novatel will also supply system software and services.

In conjunction with the launch of the LG U8120 3G handset in June, 3 HK introduced several new features and services aimed at the young and young-at-heart, including two innovative location based services. My Nearest covers more than 15,000 entertainment and leisure hot spots, while Follow Me, Follow U allows consenting users to keep track of each other’s whereabouts.

3 HK also launched a fortune-telling site, a Korean music video and download site and a cartoon channel. It also upgraded the Traffic channel to include traffic conditions at a popular local beach.

Customers in Hong Kong can now select preferred 2G or 3G services from an extensive retail network of over 150 3 outlets across the territory. Previously, HTHK successfully developed its 2G services under the Orange brand.

Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Ltd (HTHK) has consolidated its 3G, GSM Dualband and CDMA mobile networks under the 3 brand to provide greater value and a bigger portfolio of services.
3-cycling

3 UK, in partnership with Fonebak, launched a handset-recycling scheme on June 7. The initiative aims to raise £40,000 for two charities through the recycling of old and unwanted mobiles. Brainwave, a leading charity for children with special needs, and Groundwork, a world-class environmental regeneration charity, were selected following an internal staff vote. Under the scheme, 3 is inviting the public to deposit their old mobiles into the Fonebak recycling boxes located in all 160 3 stores around the UK. When a handset is recycled through Fonebak’s award-winning recycling scheme, it is dismantled, the batteries go to a specialist battery recycler, metals are extracted and used again, and the plastics are either recycled and reused, or incinerated, with the energy produced used for heating.

Applause

3’s ground-breaking mobile package VideoTalk 750 won first place in the “Consumer Post-Pay Price Plan” category at the Mobile Retailer Awards, held in the UK in June. The award identifies the tariff that represents best value for over 15 million mobile users signed up to a monthly contract. When launched in June 2003, VideoTalk 750 challenged mobile pricing convention with an unrivalled package that offers 750 minutes worth of calls for £35 and the freedom to use this call “bundle” to call any network at any time. “3 has quite simply redefined voice tariffs in the UK,” one judge commented. ThreePay, 3’s Pay-As-You-Go offer, was runner-up in the pre-pay category.

Game On

3 UK launched a mobile content service with Gamer.tv in June to provide video reviews of the latest releases to hit the exciting world of computer and video games. The video clips can be accessed through Today on 3.

The Sporting Life

3 UK has entered into a partnership with Sky Sports. Under the June agreement, Sky Sports video news and action will be available to customers of 3 through their video mobiles. The service builds on 3’s success with the Barclaycard FA Premier League highlights, which have proved popular with customers. The Sky Sports service will offer 3 customers the latest Sports News, Premier League Football News, European Tour Golf and Sky’s weekly Soccer AM television show.
